

Marina Landau, M.D.

Practices medical and procedural dermatology. Graduated from Medical School in Ben Gurion University and trained in dermatology in Tel Aviv Medical Center followed by fellowships in dermatopathology in NYU, New, Clinical Pharmacology in Sunnybrook Hospital, and Pediatric Dermatology, Sick Children Hospital, Toronto.

Dr. Landau is currently part of the staff of the department of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery in Shamir Medical Center, affiliated to Sourasky Medical School of Tel Aviv University.

Dr. Landau is a founding president of the International Peeling Society, past President of the Israel Society for Dermatologic Surgery, and International Fellow of the American Academy of Dermatology (IFAAD).

For the last 20 years Dr. Landau is dedicated to aesthetic dermatology by implementing her knowledge of basic processes in the skin into daily cosmetic practice and scientific research.

Dr. Landau is a well-known international speaker on non-surgical cosmetic procedures, including injectables, peels, lasers and threads.

Dr. Landau is an author of more than 90 scientific articles and a coauthor of chapters of 7 textbooks in dermatology and cosmetic dermatology.